

for Humanity at 770-477-2367 or www.schabitat.org.

Civitan club organizing

A Civitan club is being formed to serve western Fayette County, Tyrone, Sharpsburg and Peachtree City.

An inaugural dinner meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. March 18 at Cindy's Restaurant in Peachtree City. For information, call Darryl Douglass at 770-863-1794 or e-mail darrylwd@us.ibm.com.

Civitan is a worldwide community service organization of men and women across 22 nations on four continents.

Baby items needed

Baby Peaches Inc., a nonprofit organization headquartered in Peachtree City, is working with Christ Our Shepherd Lutheran Church this month on a program called "Cradle of Love."

The main focus of Baby Peaches is to collect baby items, including health, safety and educational materials, for low-income mothers in metro Atlanta.

In the "Cradle of Love" program, baskets are placed in offices and businesses with a list of products that are needed.

The items are given to needy mothers and families through the Grady Health System.

Members of the community who wish to help should call Sanchia Patrick at 404-323-1572.

FAYETTEVILLE

Hearing on liquor license

The Fayetteville City Council will hold a public hearing tonight on a liquor license for a Locos Deli and Pub at 805 S. Glynn St.

The council also will discuss amending the city's definition of a pawnbroker and the city tree preservation and landscaping ordinance. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. in City Hall.

FAYETTE COUNTY

Learn how to compost

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners, the Peachtree City City Council and the University of Georgia Cooperative Extension Service of Fayette County will hold a composting demonstration and compost bin sale March 27.

Composting machines that usually sell for $80 will be sold for $36.

The demonstration will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Fayette County Administrative Complex at 140 Stonewall Ave., Fayetteville, and the Frederick Brown Jr. Amphitheater parking lot off McIntosh Trail, Peachtree City.

Information: 770-460-5730.

► The Zoning Board of Appeals public hearing for March 22 has been canceled.

COWETA COUNTY

Spring Fling is Tuesday

she does. "Kathie's a